PAST EVENT: 5th INTH Network Conference (Lisbon)

Last month, we organized our fifth INTH conference with the theme "History & Responsibility: Doing History in Times of Conflicting Political Demands." It was another highly successful conference, featuring many fascinating presentations and debates. Thank you to everyone for attending! Here you can view some pictures of the conference.

One of the exciting outcomes of this conference is the proposal from Prof. Arthur Chapman, Editor in Chief of HERJ (the History Education Research Journal). He suggests a special theme in HERJ on responsibility in history education (broadly understood). If you are interested in contributing, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Dr. Robbert-Jan Adriaansen appointed endowed professor Historical Culture in Transition at Ghent University

Dr. Robbert-Jan Adriaansen is appointed as the new chair Historical Culture in Transition at the History Department, Faculty of Arts and Philosophy, Ghent University, per 1 September 2024. Established by EuroClio, the European Association of History Educators, this chair by special appointment supports theoretical reflection and empirical research into historical culture – the collection of diverse and sometimes conflicting ways of engaging with the past in education, society, and science. The INTH team based in Ghent is looking forward to his arrival!

REVIEWS

Since its establishment, INTH has managed a review section for books in the theory of history and history of historiography. We are grateful to our reviewers who have written English reviews of books in various languages, and to authors who have alerted us about their publications.

Here you will find the list of books we would like to be reviewed. If you are interested in writing a review (or you have a book up for review), please contact us. Further information can be found on our website.

Book for review of our own:

Bevernage B, Mestdagh E, Ramalho W, Verbergt M-G, eds. Claiming the People's Past: Populist Politics of History in the Twenty-First Century. Cambridge University Press, 2024.

This recently published book is an outcome of INTH and TAPAS (Thinking About the Past). For instance, we organized a workshop on this theme September 2-3, 2021, and also disseminated the call through INTH. We are very proud that the book is now available, and we would greatly appreciate it if it could be reviewed. If you are interested, please do not hesitate to contact us.
