

<https://www.queensu.ca/ghi/events/upcoming-events/ghi-workshop-2024>

GHI Workshop 2024

Global History: Remapping Categories and Concepts

October 3-4, 2024. Queen's University (Kingston, Ontario).

Conference Schedule

Register here to attend virtually!

Invited Speakers

Sven Beckert

Laird Bell Professor of History, Harvard University research interests: 19th century United States, capitalism

Visit his website for more information.

paper title: How to Write the Global History of Capitalism

Maxine Berg

Professor of History, University of Warwick research interests: early modern Asia and Europe, history of knowledge, history, and technology, material culture, historiography

Visit her departmental webpage for more information.

paper title: Global History and the Slave-Sugar Nexus: Explaining European Industrialization

Dipesh Chakrabarty

Lawrence A. Kimpton Distinguished Service Professor in History, South Asian Languages and Civilizations, and the College, University of Chicago

research interests: modern South Asia, history and historiography, postcolonial studies, globalization, climate change

Visit his departmental webpage for more information.

paper title: The Planetary Turn in Historical Thinking

Jo Guldi

Full Professor of Quantitative Methods, Emory University research interests: machine learning, statistics, big-data methods, history of the state and experience of the landscape

Visit her website for more information.

paper title: Occupancy Rights: A global and ecological history

Marnie Hughes-Warrington

Bradley Distinguished Professor of History, University of South Australia

research interests: philosophy of history, historiography, history education

Visit her institutional webpage for more information.

paper title: Globalizing Historiography in the Age of Machine Historians

Stefan J. Link

Associate Professor of History, Dartmouth College research interests: global political economy, intellectual history of capitalism, global economic history

Visit his departmental webpage for more information.

paper title: The state in global history: searching for an agenda

David B. MacDonald

Professor, Department of Political Science, University of Guelph research interests: comparative Indigenous politics in Canada, Aotearoa New Zealand and the United States

Visit his website for more information.

paper title: Unpacking Myths of Benign Foundation in Western Settler States: Considering Canada, Australia, and Aotearoa New Zealand

Julia McClure

Senior Lecturer (History), University of Glasgow

research interests: early modern global history of the Spanish Empire, poverty, charity, inequality, resistance, ecological impacts of imperialism

Visit her departmental webpage for more information.

paper title: The failure of the West: colonial capitalism and the climate crisis

John R. McNeill

Distinguished University Professor, Edmund A. Walsh School of Foreign Service and College
- Department of History, Georgetown University research interests: environmental history, the Anthropocene, global cities, global history, world history

Visit his departmental webpage for more information.

paper title: Trajectories of Global Environmental History

Allan Megill

Professor, Corcoran Department of History, University of Virginia

research interests: modern Europe, history of ideas, history theory, philosophy of history

Visit his departmental webpage for more information.

paper title: What function or functions does "the new" Global Historiography serve?

Heather Streets-Salter

Professor of History, Northeastern University research interests: imperialism and colonialism in the 19th and 20th centuries, anticolonial movements, South, East, and Southeast Asia, world history, pedagogy

Visit her departmental webpage for more information.

paper title: Global History and Anticolonialism: The Role of Trans-Imperial Networks

Heidi Tworek

Associate Professor of International History and Public Policy, University of British Columbia research interests: media and communications, history of technology, legal history, global history

Visit her website for more information.

paper title: The State of Global History from a Journal Editor's Perspective

Organizers

Amitava Chowdhury

Associate Professor, Queen's University

Visit his departmental webpage.

a.chowdhury@queensu.ca

Daniel Woolf

Professor and Principal Emeritus, Queen's University

Visit his departmental webpage.

woofd@queensu.ca

Heather Poussard

PhD Candidate, Queen's University

Visit her departmental webpage.

20hp2@queensu.ca

Global History: Remapping Categories and Concepts 2024 Workshop

October 3-4, 2024

Organized by The Global History Initiative at Queen's University Supported in part by funding from the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council.
Additional support provided by the Queen's University Department of History and the Global History Initiative.

